Bravehearts will not guarantee any promotion of these partnerships unless prior consent has been sought.
19. Media coverage is an important part of this event;
 - a) As a participant, you permit Bravehearts to publish your name and photo in any related marketing and/or media materials for the event.
 - b) Personal stories will not be published without the written permission of the participant and will always be done in conjunction with the Bravehearts media team, any media contractors we are assisting, and the full support of Bravehearts as an organisation.
 - c) Bravehearts must be made aware prior to any individual, or anyone acting on behalf of an individual, contacting the media.
 - d) Bravehearts must also approve any individual commentary to the media to ensure consistency with Bravehearts key messaging. No participant may speak to the media about the event without the prior written consent of Bravehearts.

20. Bullying and harassment will not be tolerated by Bravehearts. Bravehearts recognises that bullying and harassment may involve comments and behaviours that offend some people and not others. Bravehearts accepts that individuals may react differently to certain comments and behaviour. That is why a minimum standard of behaviour is required of participants. This standard aims to be respectful of all other participants, staff, and volunteers.
- a) Bullying: is repeated and unreasonable behaviour directed towards a person or group of persons that creates a risk to health and safety. It includes behaviour that could be considered to intimidate, offend, degrade, humiliate, undermine, or threaten.
 - b) If you are found to be behaving in a bullying or harassing manner towards any individual associated with the event, Bravehearts reserves the right to remove you from the event at any stage, prior or during the event.
